Volunteer Services Present $160,000 Donation to Health System

BRUNSWICK, Georgia: January 9, 2019– The yearlong fundraising successes of the Southeast Georgia Health System Brunswick and Camden Campus Volunteer Services were celebrated during their recent cowboy-themed holiday luncheons. They presented donations to the Health System from the proceeds raised through the Gift Shop and Volunteer Services fundraising events held December 2018 through November 2019.

“The Brunswick Campus volunteers are delighted to make a $130,000 donation to the Health System,” said Peggy Tuten, president, Brunswick Campus Volunteer Services. “We work tirelessly to ensure the success of our various fundraisers and we are pleased to already have most of our 2020 fundraisers scheduled.”

“Volunteering provides a unique and fulfilling experience, and every day we volunteer, we know our role directly impacts patients and their care,” said Deana Belcher, president, Camden Campus Volunteer Services. “I am honored to present this year’s donation of $30,000 to the Health System.”

Volunteer Services’ donations stay in the respective communities and are specifically earmarked for items that directly impact patient care. Previous years’ purchases have included rehabilitation equipment, waiting room furniture, recliner treatment chairs, simulation manikins for staff training, telemetry equipment and artwork for the pediatric unit.

“We are deeply appreciative of these donations as well as the time and energy our volunteers devote to the Health System,” expressed Michael D. Scherneck, president & CEO, Southeast Georgia Health System.
