Georgia Hospital Health Services (GHHS)

Georgia Hospital Health Services (GHHS) is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Georgia Hospital Association. GHHS was founded in 1989 for the purpose of establishing partnerships with companies that provide products and services at a discounted fee and/or with added benefits for our members. GHHS also creates or co-develops programs and services that will meet a specific need that is not currently available through an established partner. GHHS thoroughly evaluates all potential partners with a due diligence process, and will form partnerships only with companies or programs that are high quality, provide an exceptional benefit to our members, and are aligned with the Georgia Hospital Association strategic plan.
