Physician Practice Acquisitions

CCLB

CHILIVIS COCHRAN
LARKINS & BEVER ^{LLP}

Physician Practice Acquisitions

15

- Two common areas of concern related to hospital acquisition of physician practice:
 - (1) The sale transaction itself; and
 - (2) The terms of subsequent employment of practice's physicians.

CCLB

CHILIVIS COCHRAN
LARKINS & BEVER ^{LLP}

Physician Practice Acquisitions

16

- When acquiring physician practice, hospital must be sure to fit squarely under Stark exception.
- Isolated Transaction Exception: Remuneration must be:
 - ✦ Consistent with FMV;
 - ✦ Not determined in manner that takes into account (directly or indirectly) volume or value of referrals by referring physician or other business generated between the parties;
 - ✦ Remuneration would be commercially reasonable even if physician made no referrals to the entity.

CCLB

CHILIVIS COCHRAN
LARKINS & BEVER LLP

Physician Practice Acquisitions

17

- Subsequent employment of physicians must meet requirements of Stark's bona fide employment exception. Should also meet requirements of AKS Safe Harbor.

Physician Practice Acquisitions

- Lexington Medical Center Settlement (2016)

- Former employed physician files qui tam alleging that LMC violated Stark & AKS by acquiring physician practices for amounts that were not commercially reasonable or consistent with FMV in order to buy “access to [practice’s] patients.”
- Relator alleges that hospital acquired his practice for more than FMV and that hospital then employed physicians and paid them in excess of FMV and with “unreasonably long” employment contracts.
- Relator alleges that included in purchase of practice was the practice’s “lucrative imaging devices which would generate ancillary service revenue for LMC.”

Physician Practice Acquisitions

- Lexington Medical Center Settlement (2016)
 - Relator alleges that post-sale, hospital administration called meeting in which doctors were showed report generated by hospitals “internal referral-tracking system” which reported decline in ancillary referrals to hospitals. Relator alleges that purpose of meeting was “to make clear . . . that the premium LMC was paying in the form of compensation was in exchange for referrals to LMC.”
 - Hospital executive allegedly told Relator that acquisition “was predicated on acquisition of [practice]’s in-house imaging equipment, which was expected to generate revenue for LMC.”
 - Relator alleges that he was criticized for referring MRIs to another entity and was then terminated.

Medical Directorships

CCLB

CHILIVIS COCHRAN
LARKINS & BEVER ^{LLP}

Medical Directorships

22

- Common issues related to medical directorships:
 - Compensation in excess of FMV
 - Compensation for services that are not reasonably necessary
 - Lack of time-keeping records

CCLB

CHILIVIS COCHRAN
LARKINS & BEVER ^{LLP}

Medical Directorships

23

- Medical directorships must meet applicable Stark exception.

 - ✦ Aggregate services do not exceed those that are reasonable & necessary for legitimate business purposes of the arrangement
 - ✦ Duration of each arrangement is at least 1 year (if terminated, cannot enter into same or substantially same arrangement during first year of original agreement)
 - ✦ Compensation set in advance, does not exceed FMV, does not take into account volume/value of referrals or other business generated b/t parties.

CCLB

CHILIVIS COCHRAN
LARKINS & BEVER LLP

Medical Directorships

24

- Medical directorships should also be structured to fall into AKS safe harbor for personal services and management contracts:
 - In writing, signed by parties;
 - Covers all services provided by agent to principal for term of agreement and specifies such services;
 - If periodic, sporadic, or part-time, specifies the exact schedule and length of, and charges for, intervals;
 - Not less than 1 year;
 - Aggregate comp. set in advance, consistent with FMV, does not take into account volume/value of referrals or other business generated
 - Otherwise legal arrangement
 - Aggregate services do not exceed those which are reasonably necessary to accomplish commercially reasonable business purposes.

Medical Directorships

25

- South Miami Hospital Settlement (2016)

- South Miami Hospital agrees to pay $12M to resolve qui tam alleging, among other things, that hospital knowingly allowed and billed for unnecessary medical procedures by one of its cardiovascular surgeons, and overcompensated surgeon by appointing him medical director of hospital's heart center and paying him above-FMV salary for these services:

- ✦ Relator alleges that physician failed to maintain any logs or time records in order to document his time devoted to heart center.
- ✦ Relator alleges that FMV for this position was b/t $20K and $50K. Physician at issue received $250K.

CCLB

CHILIVIS COCHRAN
LARKINS & BEVER LLP

Productivity Bonuses

CCLB

CHILIVIS COCHRAN
LARKINS & BEVER ^{LLP}

Productivity Bonuses

27

- Employed physician may receive productivity bonus so long as such bonus is based on services performed personally by the physician (i.e., work RVUs).

CCLB

CHILIVIS COCHRAN
LARKINS & BEVER ^{LLP}

Productivity Bonuses

28

- Halifax Settlement (2014)

- Halifax pays $85M to settle qui tam alleging, among other things, illegal productivity bonuses to six employed medical oncologists:
 - ✦ Bonus provisions of employment contracts provided that each physician would receive a portion of a total bonus pool that was equal to 15% of the “operating margin” of the overall medical oncology program.
 - ✦ Portion of the pool received by each physician determined by dividing total billings of all 6 physicians by each physician’s individual billings.
 - ✦ Hospital argued that compensation fell under Stark’s employment exception and provision permitting productivity bonuses.
 - ✦ Denying MSJ, court says that although each physician’s proportional share of bonus pool was determined by personal services, the amount of the total pool included revenue from services referred but not personally performed by the physicians. Accordingly, did not fall under Stark exception.

CMS Reestablishes Per-Click Ban

31

- 2008: CMS once again reverses and prohibits such arrangements.
- 2015: D.C. Circuit holds that although Stark statute is silent or ambiguous on this issue, CMS's interpretation of statute was not a "permissible and reasonable" review of Congress's intent for purposes of Chevron deference. Council for Urological Interests v. Burwell.
