Carlyle Place Earns Third Consecutive Accreditation, Recognition for Commitment to Quality

Atrium Health Navicent's Life Plan Community receives five-year accreditation

MACON, Ga., March 16, 2021 – Carlyle Place, Navicent Health has earned a third consecutive Continuing Care Retirement Communities (CCRC) accreditation from CARF International, a nonprofit accreditor of health and human services.

Accredited for a five-year term, Carlyle Place has voluntarily submitted to a rigorous peer review process and demonstrated to a team of surveyors, during an on-site survey, that it is committed to conforming to CARF's accreditation conditions and standards. An organization which earns CCRC accreditation is commended on its quest for quality programs and services.

"This third consecutive accreditation is a public recognition of the excellent service teammates at Carlyle Place, Navicent Health provide daily to the seniors who have entrusted us with their care," said Atrium Health Navicent President and CEO Delvecchio Finley. "This is just one more example of how Atrium Health Navicent is improving our community's health and wellness, elevating hope and advancing healing for all."

Carlyle Place, Navicent Health is a full-service Life Plan Community. Since 2001, Carlyle Place has served senior adults who plan for their future to ensure a stable financial position along with the assurance of the full scope of health care coordination and service. Accommodations range from independent living through the continuum of personal care and skilled nursing care.

CARF is an independent nonprofit accrediting body whose mission is to promote the quality, value, and optimal outcomes of services through a consultative accreditation process and continuous improvement services that center on enhancing the lives of the persons served. Founded in 1966 as the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities, and now known as CARF International, the accrediting body establishes consumer-focused standards to help organizations measure and improve the quality of their programs and services.
