Dublin VA Social Work Month symposium set for March 20

Dublin, Ga. — The Carl Vinson VA Medical Center Social Work Service in Dublin, Ga., will host a symposium March 20 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the medical center auditorium to showcase the services and programs VA supports for veterans. The event is part of the medical center's National Social Work Month recognition.

In addition to information on social work services, there will be information tables on various other VA services related to mental health, primary care, telehealth, and specialty services, among others. Attendees can also get information about the PACT Act, which greatly expands benefits coverage for veterans experiencing healthcare issues related to toxic exposures during their service.

The event is open to the public and all interested persons are invited to attend.

For more information about the event, contact Kerry White at Kerry.White2@va.gov.

More information on the PACT Act and how to apply for benefits is available at www.va.gov/resources/the-pact-act-and-your-va-benefits/
