

Dr. Aimee Behnke joins Memorial Health University Physicians Children’s Care Program

Savannah, GA (April 25, 2024) — Memorial Health is excited to announce board-certified pediatrician, Aimee Behnke, MD, MBA, will serve as Memorial Health University Physicians Children’s Care newest care provider.

Originally from Savannah, GA, Dr. Behnke is excited to give back to the community that raised her. She has practiced pediatric medicine exclusively for 18 years and will provide attentive care for annual wellness checkups, sick visits and vaccinations. She will also offer treatment for a variety of conditions, including anxiety, asthma, eczema and much more.

“I love to partner with families to help them raise their children with confidence, compassion and understanding. I believe the greatest tools a pediatrician can have are being able to listen to their patient’s concerns and show empathy in all interactions,” says Dr. Behnke.

Dr. Behnke obtained her medical degree from the Medical College of Georgia in Augusta, GA and completed her residency in pediatrics at the UF Health Shands Children’s Hospital in Gainesville, FL.

In her free time, Dr. Behnke enjoys spending time with her crested gecko and tarantula as well as baking, knitting, and traveling to new places. To make an appointment or referral to Dr. Behnke, please call (912) 350-8180.
