AdventHealth Medical Group Family and Internal Medicine at Cedartown welcomes Mandy Kisor, FNP-C

Cedartown, Georgia – AdventHealth is pleased to welcome Mandy Kisor, FNP-C, to AdventHealth Medical Group Family and Internal Medicine at Cedartown. Kisor joins the care team, expanding access to compassionate, patient-centered primary care for individuals and families.

Kisor is a board-certified Family Nurse Practitioner dedicated to caring for patients across every stage of life, from children to geriatrics. She believes in a whole-person, patient-centered approach to care, taking time to listen to her patients, build meaningful relationships and partner with them to develop personalized treatment plans that support their overall health and well-being.

Kisor earned a Master of Health Administration from Louisiana State University Shreveport, a Master of Science in Nursing with a concentration in Population Health from Jacksonville State University, and a Post-Master's Certificate in Family Nurse Practitioner from The University of Alabama. Certified in Advanced Practice Provider Leadership, she brings a diverse clinical background that includes emergency services, hospital leadership, infusion therapy and case management.

AdventHealth Medical Group Family and Internal Medicine at Cedartown offers a wide range of services, including acute and chronic disease management, preventive care, wellness exams, routine health screenings, immunizations, diabetes care and mental health support. The practice also provides care for minor injuries, school and sports physicals, laboratory services, weight management, and comprehensive women's and men's health care.

Located in Cedartown, the practice offers convenient access to care for patients of all ages. To schedule an appointment or for more information, call 770-749-1005 or visit AdventHealth.com.
