

Crisp Regional Hospital Welcomes Dr. Anne J. Lombardi and Dr. Mohamed Elgendy to Crisp Regional Pediatrics

Cordele, GA — Crisp Regional Hospital is proud to announce the addition of two highly skilled and compassionate pediatricians, Dr. Anne J. Lombardi and Dr. Mohamed Elgendy, to the team at Crisp Regional Pediatrics. Their combined expertise enhances the exceptional care provided to children and families in our community.

Dr. Anne J. Lombardi, MD, brings a wealth of experience in both General Pediatrics and Pediatric Hematology & Oncology. She earned her Doctor of Medicine from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Medicine, completed her residency in Pediatrics at Baylor College of Medicine, and further specialized with a fellowship in Pediatric Hematology & Oncology at Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center. Dr. Lombardi is board-certified in both General Pediatrics and Pediatric Hematology & Oncology, ensuring comprehensive and advanced care for young patients.

“We are thrilled to welcome Dr. Lombardi to Crisp Regional Pediatrics,” said Steven Gautney, President & CEO of Crisp Regional Hospital. “Her extensive training and dedication to pediatric health are invaluable to our community. Dr. Lombardi's expertise ensures that our youngest patients will receive the highest level of care close to home.”

Dr. Mohamed Elgendy, MD, brings a diverse background in clinical care and research. He earned his Doctor of Medicine from Kasr Al-Ainy Cairo University in Cairo, Egypt, and completed his residency in Pediatrics at Western Michigan University Homer Stryker School of Medicine. Before joining Crisp Regional Pediatrics, Dr. Elgendy served as a Pediatrics Attending Physician at Indiana University Health and conducted extensive research as a scholar at Stony Brook University Hospital and New York University Langone Medical Center. Fluent in English and Arabic, Dr. Elgendy is committed to delivering culturally sensitive, patient-centered care.

“We are excited to welcome Dr. Elgendy to Crisp Regional Pediatrics,” said Steven L. Gautney. “His exceptional training, research experience, and patient-focused approach will be a tremendous asset to our community and the families we serve.”

Both Dr. Lombardi and Dr. Elgendy are now accepting new patients at Crisp Regional Pediatrics. For more information or to schedule an appointment, please contact Crisp Regional Pediatrics at (229) 271-2229.
