New Children's Care Doctor Brings Expert Care to Vidalia

Vidalia, GA (February 2, 2023)— Memorial Health Meadows Hospital is excited to announce that former pediatric resident physician, Dr. Joshua Pittman, will serve as the newest care provider for Memorial Health Meadows Physicians Children's Care in Vidalia, GA.

Dr. Pittman is a dedicated pediatric physician committed to supporting the health and wellness of his patients. He obtained his Doctorate of Medicine at the Morehouse School of Medicine in Atlanta, GA where he also earned his Masters of Science in Medical Sciences degree. Most recently, Dr. Pittman completed his residency with Memorial Health University Medical Center's pediatric residency program, the region's largest pediatric residency program, in Savannah, GA.

"We are excited to welcome Dr. Joshua Pittman to the Meadows Physicians Children's Care team," said Matt Hasbrouck, CEO of Memorial Health Meadows Hospital. "As part of our pediatric group, he will support the health and wellness of children and adolescents in Toombs and surrounding counties. Our growing pediatric specialty is another example of Meadows Hospital's ongoing commitment to bringing healthcare closer to home."

Dr. Pittman will provide routine care services and specialized treatment for children ages 0-18. He is an active volunteer with the Annual December Toy Drive and Team Up to Clean Up in Savannah, GA.

Dr. Pittman will see patients at 125 Church Street Suite 101 in Vidalia, GA 30474. If you would like to learn more about their services or make an appointment, please call (912) 538-8484 or visit MeadowsPhysicians.com.
