Jodi's Accessories Returns to Jesup for Hospital Volunteer Fundraiser

Jesup, GA - A Georgia Company, Jodi's Accessories, will be returning to the parking lot of Wayne Memorial Hospital to help the hospital volunteers raise money through a fundraising sale. Known for their unique and stylish gifts, Jodi's Accessories will be offering home décor, decorative cups, clipboards, bows, pop sockets and more. Many items are $6. The one-day, outdoor sale will take place Thursday, February 25th, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the side parking lot of the hospital, to the right of the main building. Masks should be worn and social distancing should be observed.

Cash, credit and debit cards will be accepted. For a sneak preview of their merchandise, log on to jodisaccessories.net or find them on Facebook under the name "Jodi's Accessories." The mission of the hospital volunteer group is to serve patients, patient family members and hospital staff. They donate thousands of hours a year in volunteer time and monetary donations to the hospital in order to assist in the procurement of necessary but unbudgeted equipment.
